Part II Course Details

1. Abstract

(A 150-word description about the course)

This course aims to enable students to:

- Describe essential theoretical concepts in sociolinguistics;
- Apply theoretical concepts to the analysis and discussion of language and society;
- Demonstrate an understanding of the complex relationship between language and society;
- Discover patterns of language use in real-life situations;
- Research and analyze language issues in different contexts from a sociolinguistic perspective; and
- Evaluate language issues in different contexts and create solutions.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

(CILOs state what the student is expected to be able to do at the end of the course according to a given standard of performance.)

No.	CILOs [#]	Weighting* (if applicable)	Discovery-enriched curriculum related learning outcomes (please tick where appropriate)
			A1	A2	A3
1.	Understand and describe theoretical concepts in sociolinguistics such as language variation, code choice, speech community, identity, gender, code-switching, and world Englishes.		X
2.	Critically discuss and apply key issues and concepts through in-class participation and online exchanges.		X	X
3.	Research and analyze selected key issues and concepts in language and society in depth through comparing and contrasting different contexts.		X	X
4.	Evaluate the selected concepts and key issues to local and global contexts and collaboratively create solutions and recommendations.		X	X	X

* If weighting is assigned to CILOs, they should add up to 100%.

100%

[#] Please specify the alignment of CILOs to the Gateway Education Programme Intended Learning outcomes (PILOs) in Section A of Annex.

A1: Attitude

Develop an attitude of discovery/innovation/creativity, as demonstrated by students possessing a strong sense of curiosity, asking questions actively, challenging assumptions or engaging in inquiry together with teachers.

A2: Ability

Develop the ability/skill needed to discover/innovate/create, as demonstrated by students possessing critical thinking skills to assess ideas, acquiring research skills, synthesizing knowledge across disciplines or applying academic knowledge to self-life problems.

A3: Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

3. Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs)

(TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)

TLA	Brief Description	CILO No.						Hours/week (if applicable)
		1	2	3	4
1	Participation in interactive lectures, discussions, tasks, and activities Students learn to understand and evaluate sociolinguistic concepts relevant to the study of language use in different contexts (including language education contexts) through participating in interactive lectures and activities where those concepts are introduced, modelled, and illustrated. Students also learn how to participate in an interactive classroom culture and see best practices of language teaching in action.	X	X
2	Students learn to understand and evaluate sociolinguistic concepts relevant to the study of language use and language education through completing required readings in our course book and selected articles, and being prepared to discuss them.	X	X
3	Students research and investigate a particular sociolinguistic issue of their choice. Specifically, students work in small teams to research a key concept of their choice related to language, education and society.	X		X	X

4. Assessment Tasks/Activities (ATs)

(ATs are designed to assess how well the students achieve the CILOs.)

Assessment Tasks/Activities	CILO No.						Weighting*	Remarks
	1	2	3	4
Continuous Assessment: _100_%
Class Participation	X	X	X	X			20%	Individual: Based on how frequently, actively, and constructively students participate. In-class activities, discussions and presentations measure students' ability to apply newly learned principles to real contexts and situations. Active participation in all classes, discussions, tasks, and activities. Students are assessed according to how actively they contribute to in-class discussions, tasks, and activities on course topics and readings, as well as how they lead in-class discussions. Active in-class participation requires verbal (and online) contributions.

Final Project			X	X			30%	Group work: Students will have the opportunity to apply their knowledge to critically analyze and evaluate authentic language data and other kinds of data. Students will apply analytical methods in their analysis. Students will also have the opportunity to identify and reflect on language, society, education, and identity.
Final Project In-Class			X	X			20%	Group work: Students

Presentation								will demonstrate their ability to apply their knowledge and analytical tools and report their findings in a succinct, organized, and professional manner in an oral presentation.
