Part II Course Details

1. Abstract

(A 150-word description about the course)

This course aims to study the impacts of computer-mediated communication on the way we interact, use language and think about ourselves. It introduces theories from psychology, media studies and sociolinguistics to explain questions relevant to our everyday relationship with technology. Students will have the opportunity to analyse on-line interaction, both in the classroom and outside of it. Throughout the semester, students will do a project in which they analyse their own on-line interaction and experiment in participating in virtual communities.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

(CILOs state what the student is expected to be able to do at the end of the course according to a given standard of performance.)

No.	CILOs	Weighting* (if applicable)	Discovery-enriched curriculum related learning outcomes (please tick where appropriate)
			A1	A2	A3
1.	describe and critically analyse the construction of identities and communities in online spaces and apply the knowledge generated to their own practice		X
2.	describe and critically analyse authentic online interactions and literacy practices in virtual communities/spaces and apply the knowledge generated to their own practice		X	X
3.	describe and explain the relationship among face-to-face and virtual expressions, identities, communities/spaces, interactions and literacy practice		X	X
4.	identify and compose solutions related to critical, social issues of language and digital media			X	X
		100%

* If weighting is assigned to CILOs, they should add up to 100%.

A1: Attitude

Develop an attitude of discovery/innovation/creativity, as demonstrated by students possessing a strong sense of curiosity, asking questions actively, challenging assumptions or engaging in inquiry together with teachers.

A2: Ability

Develop the ability/skill needed to discover/innovate/create, as demonstrated by students possessing critical thinking skills to assess ideas, acquiring research skills, synthesizing knowledge across disciplines or applying academic knowledge to self-life problems.

A3: Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

3. Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs)

(TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)

TLA	Brief Description	CILO No.						Hours/week (if applicable)
		1	2	3	4
Interactive lectures	Interactive lectures delivered in class with in-class activities and a range of exercises requiring group and individual participation, often conducted in a computer lab and through online communication and collaboration tools	X	X
Course readings and online sources of engagement	Readings facilitate learning and discussion of online communities, online identities, and issues related to digital media theory, including social and personal engagement in Web 2.0 platforms and social media networks.		X	X	X
Group activities online	Groups work to design and implement original projects both in-class and out of class using new media tools and practices discussed in course readings (e.g. social networking). Such projects facilitate understanding of online community formation and the possibilities of working together through new media tools in various interfaces.			X	X

4. Assessment Tasks/Activities (ATs)

(ATs are designed to assess how well the students achieve the CILOs.)

Assessment Tasks/Activities	CILO No.						Weighting*	Remarks
	1	2	3	4
Continuous Assessment: _100_%
Quiz			x	x			30%	Individual: Students demonstrate understanding of concepts learnt in class through an in-class quiz.

Literature Review			X	X			25%	Individual: Students identify academic articles related to a particular area of study in the course, and critically review the literature.
Research Proposal		X	X	X			15%	Group: Students work on a research proposal for the final project.
Final Ethnographic Project	x	x	X	X			20%	Group: Students conduct research on a topic related to language and digital media, and present the findings using new media tools.
Participation							10%	Individual: Students are expected to participate actively in class and in online discussions
Examination: ____% (duration: _____, if applicable)

* The weightings should add up to 100%.

5. Assessment Rubrics

(Grading of student achievements is based on student performance in assessment tasks/activities with the following rubrics.)

Assessment Task	Criterion	Excellent (A+, A, A-)	Good (B+, B, B-)	Fair (C+, C, C-)	Marginal (D)	Failure (F)
Literature Review (25%)	Content (20%)	Excellent selection of relevant literature on the topic Excellent understanding of the selected literature Able to offer a critical and thorough analysis on the literature and accurately illustrate its relevance to the research topic	Good selection of literature on the topic Good understanding of the selected literature Able to conduct a thorough analysis on the literature and illustrate its relevance to the research topic.	Satisfactory selection of literature on the topic Adequate understanding of the selected literature Able to conduct a basic analysis on the literature, with minor inaccuracies, and show some relevance to the research topic.	Limited ability to select suitable literature on the topic Limited understanding of the selected literature Able to conduct a superficial analysis on the literature, with serious inaccuracies, with limited ability to show relevance to the research topic	Unable to select suitable literature on the topic Inadequate understanding of the selected literature Unable to present an analysis on the literature and show relevance to the research topic
	Language (5%)	Excellent use of language with few errors and appropriate to the genre and audience.	Good use of language with some errors and mostly appropriate to the genre and audience	Adequate use of language with some errors (sometimes major) although at times not appropriate to the genre and audience	Little evidence of adequate use of language for the genre and audience	Inadequate use of language for the genre and audience

Quiz (30%)		Shows extensive knowledge of assigned readings and full understanding of important concepts; Can relate concepts from readings to issues raised in class; Accurately and impressively applies concepts to situations in one's own life context.	Shows some good knowledge of assigned readings and an understanding of important concepts; Can relate most of the concepts from readings to issues raised in class; Accurately applies concepts to situations in one's own life context.	Shows limited knowledge of assigned readings and some basic understanding of important concepts; Can relate some of the concepts from readings to issues raised in class; Able to apply a few of the concepts to situations in one's own life context.	Shows very little in terms of knowledge of assigned readings and shows only a very limited understanding of important concepts; Has trouble relating the concepts from readings to issues raised in class; Applies a limited or fairly basic understanding of the concepts to situations in one's own life context.	Shows no knowledge of assigned readings and shows little to no understanding of important concepts; Cannot relate the concepts from readings to issues raised in class; Applies no clear understanding of the concepts to situations in one's own life context.

Final Ethnographic Project (20%)	Project website content (10%)	An excellent project website with an excellent rationale for choice of community and questions, data that is always effectively selected and an excellent analysis that answers the questions. Excellent conclusions that can be clearly justified and may show originality are reached.	A good project website with a good rationale for choice of community and questions, data that is mostly effectively selected and a good analysis that mostly answers the questions. Good conclusions are reached.	An adequate project website with an adequate rationale for choice of community and questions, data that is sometimes effectively selected and an adequate analysis that sometimes answers the questions. Adequate conclusions are reached.	An inadequate project website with an inadequate rationale for choice of community and questions, data that is may not be effectively selected and an analysis that may not adequately answer the questions. Conclusions may not be adequate.	Fails to provide an adequate rationale for choice of community and questions. Fails to select and analyze data adequately. Fails to reach adequate conclusions.

	Project website composition (10%)	Excellent use of hypertext to organise the website and multimodal resources that always combine effectively to make meaning. Excellent use of language with few errors and always appropriate to the genre and audience.	Good use of hypertext to organise the website and good use of multimodal resources that mostly combine effectively to make meaning. Good use of language with some errors and mostly appropriate to the genre and audience.	Adequate use of hypertext to organise the website and adequate use of multimodal resources that sometimes combine effectively to make meaning. Adequate use of language with some errors (sometimes major) although at times not appropriate to the genre and audience.	Inadequate use of hypertext to organise the website and inadequate use of multimodal resources that do not combine effectively to make meaning. Little evidence of adequate use of language for the genre and audience.	Fails to make proper use of hypertext to organize the website and fails to make use of multimodal resources effectively. Inadequate use of language for the genre and audience.
Participation (10%)		An excellent record of attendance and participation. Attended all classes	Satisfactory attendance and punctuality.
