Part II Course Details

1. Abstract

(A 150-word description about the course)

This course aims to introduce students to a systematic description of the use of the English language in society and to the skills needed to apply their knowledge to the analysis of authentic language data from a sociolinguistic perspective. Under the guidance of the instructors, students will discover the patterns of English language use in real-life situations and present their findings in innovative ways.

2. Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

(CILOs state what the student is expected to be able to do at the end of the course according to a given standard of performance.)

No.	CILOs	Weighting* (if applicable)	Discovery-enriched curriculum related learning outcomes (please tick where appropriate)
			A1	A2	A3
1.	Discover the sociolinguistic aspects of English Language use in society;		√
2.	Identify sociolinguistic processes of dialect variation, diachronic change, and code-switching in the English Language;		√
3.	Compare different varieties of world Englishes;		√
4.	Compare and contrast theories and methods in sociolinguistics;			√
5.	Critically apply the knowledge learnt in the course to analyse authentic language data in everyday life;			√
6.	Critically apply the knowledge learnt in the course to reflect on the ways in which English Language is used in mediated actions and is combined meaningfully with other modes of communication;			√
7.	Critically apply the knowledge learnt in the course to reflect on the ways in which English Language use relates to identities (gendered, sexual, class, national, etc.)			√
			100%

 If weighting is assigned to CILOs, they should add up to 100%.*

A1: Attitude

Develop an attitude of discovery/innovation/creativity, as demonstrated by students possessing a strong sense of curiosity, asking questions actively, challenging assumptions or engaging in inquiry together with teachers.

A2: Ability

Develop the ability/skill needed to discover/innovate/create, as demonstrated by students possessing critical thinking skills to assess ideas, acquiring research skills, synthesizing knowledge across disciplines or applying academic knowledge to self-life problems.

A3: Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

3. Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs)

(TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)

Continuous Assessment: 100 %
1. Class Participation	√	√	√	√				15%	Individual: Based on how frequently, actively, and constructively students participate. In-class activities, discussions and presentations measure students' ability to apply newly learned principles to real contexts and situations.
2. Project (Paper)	√				√	√	√	30%	Group work: Students will have the opportunity to apply their knowledge to critically analyze and evaluate authentic language data. Students will apply analytical methods in their analysis. Students will also have the opportunity to identify and reflect on language and media and language and identity.
3. Project In-Class Presentation	√				√	√	√	20%	Group work: Students will demonstrate their ability to apply their knowledge and analytical tools and report their findings in a succinct, organized, and professional manner in an oral presentation.
4. Final Test	√	√	√	√	√	√	√	35%	Individual: The final test will be designed to test students' facility with theoretical concepts and analytical skills from lectures and readings. It will also test students'
