Part II Course Details

1. Abstract

This course aims to develop students' awareness and understanding of communication practices in an international and culturally complex professional context. Students will learn major concepts, theories and issues related to intercultural communication in a variety of contexts. Topics include: problems in cross- group communication, communication and identity, negotiation patterns in different groups, different domains of culture, social group, discourses and communities of practice, intra-Asian and intra- Chinese communicative differences. The course will prepare students to meet different issues related to intercultural communication in the real world.

Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs) 2.

(CILOs state what the student is expected to be able to do at the end of the course according to a given standard of performance.)

^{*} If weighting is assigned to CILOs, they should add up to 100%.

Develop an attitude of discovery/innovation/creativity, as demonstrated by students possessing a strong sense of curiosity, asking questions actively, challenging assumptions or engaging in inquiry together with teachers.

A2:

Develop the ability/skill needed to discover/innovate/create, as demonstrated by students possessing critical thinking skills to assess ideas, acquiring research skills, synthesizing knowledge across disciplines or applying academic knowledge to self-life problems.

A3: Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

Teaching and Learning Activities (TLAs) 3.

(TLAs designed to facilitate students' achievement of the CILOs.)
